LOCAL MISCELLANY.

SALE OF HARPER'S FERRY PROPERTY.—It will be recalled that a bill, originating in the House of Representatives, passed that body last winter, for the sale of the valuable water-power, land, tenements, &c., belonging to the Government at Harper's Ferry. When the bill was sent to the Senate, it was so materially modified as to render its return to the House essential, but no disposition of the matter was made during the session. We are now gratified to state, that we note the following as among the proceedings of the House on Wednesday:

"Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, reported Senate bill authorizing the sale, by the Secretary of War, of the land and tenements belonging to the United States at Harper's Ferry. Passed." As this sale has heretofore been recommended by the President and Secretary of War, it is reasonable to presume no further difficulties will now intervene. We hope the property may be at once put in market, as there are capitalists enough in the country ready to embark in the enterprise of which this invaluable water-power, second only to Lowell, will prove the momentum. We confidently hope to see Harper's Ferry soon again rejuvenated—its charred factories and dwellings supplanted by new ones—the hum of busy industry within its borders, and its people prosperous and happy. The country at large, would feel the benefits of this realization, and we hope it may come speedily.

A BEAUTIFUL ANNUAL—Christmas Tokens of Remembrance.—We have been permitted to examine the proof sheets of a new volume that is to be issued from the press of Messrs. Kelly, Platt & Co., 174 Balto. St., Baltimore, in time for the approaching holidays. That it is a work of merit and peculiar interest to our immediate people, it is only necessary to state that it will embrace "The Wrath of Eglington" and other Poems, edited, and in part composed, by DANIEL BEDINGER LUCAS, Esq., the accomplished scholar and gifted poet of our own country. It will also contain many choice selections from the storehouse of this prolific muse, of Pastoral, National and Miscellaneous Poems, with the "Land where we were Dreaming," and other patriotic pieces. The work is to be got up in the best style of typography, and elegantly bound, and illustrated by three beautiful Drawings of "Scenes in the Shenandoah Valley," as taken by DAVID L. HENDERSON, Esq., also of this country. That our friends will justly appreciate this so-venued, we have no reason to doubt, and we shall hope to see the enterprising publishers receive a liberal return for the exquisite manner in which they have presented to the public the joint work of our two most deserving sons. It will be for sale, we presume, by the 25th, at the Bookstores of the country, and its price will be $1.75.

COL. CHAFFIN.—This diminutive gentleman—a native Virginian, of Bedford county—was on exhibition in our town last week. The Col. is 43 years' old, 27 inches high, weighs 25 pounds and doubtless the smallest man in the world. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, many of our citizens flocked to see him, and did not regret that they had seen the "Virginia wonder." He will remain in Shepherdstown during the term of the Court, and will go from thence to Martinsburg, and our friends of those localities should by no means fail to see the like of which "they may ne'er see again."

ANNIVERSARY.—To-morrow, Wednesday, 15th, will make nine years since four of the condemned conspirators in the "Brown Raid" expired their crime against the Commonwealth of Virginia, by hanging. On that day the two negroes, Shields Green and John Copeland, with Cook and Coppie, white, were hung. Since that time, and this "Brown Raid" was but the forerunner, what events and changes have taken place in our country! We have no time to moralize, but the event of itself will naturally induce reflections as to the past, and the sober, serious contemplation, as to the future.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—We have had no opportunity as yet of examining in detail, the many novel and attractive keepsakes our merchants and shopmen are procuring for the coming holidays, but if they compare with our down-stairs neighbor, MASON, at his popular Drug and Stationery store, the sight is worth seeing. He has on hand every article that the most exquisite taste could suggest, and of Annals, Books, prose and poetical, Perfumery, Pomades, Soaps, Brushes, Combs, &c., &c., there is no end.

HOG KILLING.—Yesterday was a hard day on young ducks, but vastly more so on the swinish multitude, as they were squealing in all directions. Some of the very best season has produced, were slaughtered by Messrs. Kemp, Kellison, Tomlinson, Moran and others, the weights of the most of which we shall give in our next number. Some of them were whoopers, giving no indication as to scarcity of corn or stint in its feeding. During the week, most of the hogs in town and neighborhood, will have been butchered.

THE PEACE and good order of our town, considering the near approach of the holidays, is commendable, and better we think than for the last two or three years, just passed. It is always our pleasure to bear testimony to the good conduct of our freedmen, when they deserve it, and we hope nothing may occur during the "merry season," to mar the respectful and amicable relations now existing between the two races.

HO, FOR THE HOLIDAYS!—Christmas is at hand, and HENRY DUNN is prepared for the emergency. He has just returned from Baltimore with a large and select assortment of Toys and Trinkets, of all descriptions, and Fruits, Cakes and Candies in abundance. If any of our readers wish something really nice, let them go to DUNN's and inspect for themselves.

ALEXANDRIA, LOUDOUN AND HAMPSHIRE R.R.—The National Intelligencer says: "Washington should freely aid the extension of the Loudoun and Hampshire road, whose main stem terminates at Alexandria. It is thought by our practical men in enterprise relating to internal improvements, that the extension of the Loudoun and Hampshire railway is fraught with greatest advantages to our metropolitan community. As the resources that would feed the Loudoun and Hampshire railway in its proposed extension to the coal region, the advantages of which must, of course, be largely for Alexandria, yet much remains." The Intelligencer quotes, as follows, in this connection, from a speech delivered several years ago by Mr. Joseph Segar:

"Alexandria has a better port, deeper water, more spacious wharves. No mud machines are required to deepen the channel to admit second-class ships to her port. The largest merchantman can swing within a few feet of her warehouses. She is nearer to a supporting back country than Baltimore. What, then, hinders her from becoming an important commercial town? What but the want of that policy which being used by Maryland, has put Baltimore ahead? Sir, God has done as much for Alexandria as Baltimore, man has done less—that is all. But build her up we can. Let us bring down to her, first, the trade of the great country of Loudoun, making her the selling town and the buying town of the people of a county that produces one twentieth part of all the wheat raised in Virginia; let us turn over to her the trade of the counties of Frederick, Jefferson, Clarke, Berkeley, Hampshire, Morgan and Hardy, which now swells the stream of Maryland commerce; let us, above all, unlock to her the millions and millions of tons of coal that lie much nearer to her than they do to Baltimore; let us, in a word, make her, as we surely can, the great coal depot and coal shipping port of the Union."

Referring to the annual meeting of the Stockholders of this company, the Alexandria Gazette says:

The adjourned Annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire R.R. Company, was held at the office of the company, in the city, when Lewis McKenzie was unanimously elected President and John Janney, C. F. Lee, J. M. Orr, G. W. Janney, Benj. Morgan and Sam. J. C. Moore, Directors.

A resolution was offered and referred to the Directors directing them, before authorizing any branch of the road to Washington or Georgetown, to ascertain from the corporate authorities of those cities, what amount they will subscribe to the stock of the company, beyond the amount necessary to construct the said branch.

The Directors were empowered to make all necessary arrangements with the Washington and Annapolis Railroad for securing a regular running connection with Washington, and authorizing the issue of stock for the promotion of the construction of the road westward.

Resolutions of thanks to the President of the road and of the officers for their management of its affairs, were also adopted, and the meeting adjourned sine die.

The unanimous re-election of Mr. Lewis McKenzie as President of the road, and of the former Board of Directors, shows the confidence entertained by the stockholders of the road, in the energy and zeal of the management of this important enterprise.

SALES.—The property of Mr. J. J. Kennedy, in the south-eastern part of the town, has been purchased by Mr. HENDLEY MILLSTEAD, at $850, cash. The house and lot at the lower end of the town, adjoining the former Woods' property, and known as the "Smallwood house," was sold recently by H. Keyes, Esq., to Mrs. Bryant O'Bannon, at a price not ascertained.

PORK is now scarce in our community, but little offering at any price. A few thousand weight could be readily sold at from nine to ten dollars per hundred. The market is fully supplied with turkeys, chickens, and other poultry, and price less than since the war. Butter and eggs in demand—supply scarce—averaging 45 a 50 cts. per lb. for the former, and 25 a 35 cts. per dozen for the latter.

SALE, on to-morrow, (Wednesday,) of a large variety of Household and Kitchen Furniture, by E. H. Campbell of this town, and on Thursday, 17th, John W. Roberts, Administrator of Wm. H. Myers, will dispose of all the Stock, Farming Implements, &c., of the deceased, at Myerstown.

NEW GOODS.—J. W. Grantham, of Middlebury, has just received a full and complete assortment of Woolen Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, &c., which he will sell cheap. Advertisement next week.

MISS MARGIE RINEHART, daughter of the late Christian Rinehart of Shepherdstown, who was burned so severely a few weeks since, died from the effects at the residence of her brother near that place, on the 6th inst.

VERMONTERS!—Your attention is called to the advertisement headed "VERMONTERS." Read it.

TREMENDOUS SALE OF MINERAL LANDS.—For some months past, as our readers will remember, our columns have contained the advertisement of Capt. Moss W. Nelson's valuable mineral land in Carter and Johnson counties, for sale. The Captain has persistently refused, all the while, to sell any part of the land unless the purchaser would take the whole. As this required too large a sum of money for any one in this part of the country, the lands have been sometime in the market. We are glad to learn that the Captain has at length, through the agency of his attorney, Gen. Ramsay, of this city, succeeded in disposing of his entire possessions for the handsome sum of Ten Millions of Dollars! We understand that the purchaser is a London capitalist, or rather a company of capitalists, who may probably soon enter into the most extensive mining business ever undertaken in this country.—Knickerbocker (Tenn.) Press and Herald.

VALLEY ITEMS.

From our Valley exchanges we clip the following items:—

—Lead Ore has been found in Hardy, represented to be equal to that of Galena, and abounding in large quantities.

—The Rev. P. B. Price of the Third Presbyterian Church at Richmond, has been called to the High Bridge Church in Rockbridge.

—A revival of religion, promising happy results, is now in progress in the Episcopal Methodist church, Braddock street, Winchester.

—A deserter named Farmer, belonging to the company of soldiers stationed in Winchester, was arrested last week in Lynchburg. He will be sent to Richmond for trial.

—The Rail Road has been completed to Harrisonburg, and the material train, with the "iron horse," reached that place on Tuesday last. Editors and people exceedingly jubilant over the result.

—A call to the rectorship of Christ Church, Baltimore, has been extended to Rev. Thomas U. Dudley, at present pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Harrisonburg, which has been accepted.

—The trade in poultry has become a heavy one in Winchester. One firm has already, this season, sent to Baltimore, fifty flocks of turkeys, averaging over forty to a flock, besides hundreds of smaller lots.

—Mr. Charles Cochran of Winchester, a man of family, with a wife and two children, committed suicide by hanging, in Winchester, on Monday afternoon, of last week. He was about 27 years of age and a son of the late Dr. Cochran, an old citizen of Frederick county.

—A colored man, employed on one of the freight trains on the Chesapeake & Ohio R.R., was arrested on the 5th inst., in Staunton, by Detective Knox, of Richmond, suspected with being implicated in the murder of W. E. Burton, whose body was found beside the railroad near Gordonsville.

—The skull of a human being has been found near the head of Wilson's Creek in Bath county. There was a bullet hole in the center of the forehead and near the skull was found an old pair of shoes and the barrel of a Rifle, the stock had decayed and rotted off. It is believed to be the body of an old gentleman named John McMullen, who left his home in 1857, or 1858, and had never been heard of since. He is supposed to have committed suicide.

The remains were found by a party of hunters, one of whom shot a Deer at the spot they found the skull.

He was not in his right mind for some time before he left his home. Time alone will reveal the true secret of his death.

—Those irreverent lads who called names after a certain "bald head" deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead, that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth.
